

Invest in Your Business with Next Generation Information Management Technology!

Take advantage of the Section 179 deduction for purchased or financed technology equipment and software!

Benefit Your Business Now

Using the Section 179 tax deduction, your business can recover up to $1 million for qualifying technology equipment and software purchased in 2018.

Leasing & Financing – More Value Added to Your P&L

By spreading acquisition costs out over time, it may be possible to deduct amounts greater than your technology cash outlay for 2018. The potential financial benefit to your bottom line is immediate as more cash remains on your balance sheet. Additionally, you may be able to accelerate your technology plans more quickly as a result.
