Square 9 Softworks Awarded 40 Badges and Three #1 Spots in G2's Winter 2024 Report

Success Attributed to Strong Customer-Focused Approach

NEW HAVEN, CT, December 18, 2023 - Square 9 Softworks solidifies its position as a leading provider of AI-powered Intelligent Information Management solutions for the 8th quarter in a row, earning 40 badges, 3 first-place rankings, and 20 top 3 rankings in G2's grid reports.

The G2 Winter 2024 report is based on ratings by actual users of Content and Intelligent Information Management systems. Square 9 needed to receive 10 or more reviews to qualify for each index and needed 5 or more responses to the index-related questions.

"Rankings on G2 reports are based on data provided to us by real software buyers," said Sara Rossio, Chief Product Officer at G2. "Potential buyers know they can trust these insights when researching and selecting software because they're rooted in vetted, verified, and authentic reviews."

Square 9's rankings range across 97 categories, including first-place positions as a Momentum Leader and for having the best results and relationships. Square 9 also continues to maintain its position as a Momentum Leader in Enterprise Content Management, OCR, Document Management, and Business Process Management.

"We're incredibly proud of the feedback we continue to receive from our customers," says Steve Young, Square 9 President and CEO. "Our continued success on G2's grid reports and other similar initiatives is a clear testament to the customer-focused approach we strive to uphold every day."

With the new year fast approaching, it's clear Square 9 is not slowing down in its efforts to provide the best quality services and solutions in the industry.
